Shackin' Up on the Island

Spectacle Island

Clambake! Thursday nights through September 3, Jasper White's Summer Shack gives land-locked seafood lovers a rare treat: beachside clambakes on Boston's Spectacle Island. After a short ferry ride from Long Wharf you get to enjoy all the classics, including clam chowder, steamed lobsters, mussels, steamers, corn on the cob, new potatoes and chorizo. The $75 fee includes transportation and food, plus beer and wine. And, if you've got a group and reserve a private party, you can do the clambake any night you want. Talk about a relaxing, albeit brief, summer getaway (Thursdays, 6:30–9 PM; $75 per person; 617-223-8040).
